

Customer Service Practitioner Level 2 Apprenticeship Standard

Overview

The Customer Service Practitioner Level 2 Apprenticeship Standard is ideal for either your first customer service role, or if you currently work in a customer service environment and wish to gain a nationally recognised qualification to boost your career. Whilst undertaking your Apprenticeship, you could be working in any of the following customer facing roles:

- Customer Service Trainee
- Customer Service Advisor
- Customer Service Assistant
- Receptionist
- Front of House Assistant

In any of the above or similar roles, you are often the face and voice of the organisation, and the Customer Service Practitioner Apprenticeship will teach you the importance of continuous improvement in customer service and communication.

A Customer Service Apprenticeship will involve you working in a customer service role in a variety of sectors. Since interacting with the public is a key part of such a role, this type of Apprenticeship is suitable for those that are sociable and enjoy communicating on all levels. The following skills and attributes will be of benefit to you in a customer service role:

- A friendly and helpful attitude
- Excellent communication skills
- Organised and efficient

- Resourceful and positive
- Good time-keeping

Working hours vary and are dependent on your employer and the type of industry that you are employed in. Customer Service roles in an office environment will typically involve working from 9am to 5pm. In sectors such as hospitality, retail, and travel you could be working as late as 10 pm including some weekend work.

Upon successful completion of your Customer Service Practitioner Apprenticeship, you will qualify with a NCFE Level 2 Diploma in Customer Service, plus Level 1 Functional Skills in Maths & English.
